Joakim Lignerkröna

IT Consultant | Software Developer | Innovator
Stockholm, Stockholm County, Sweden

Summary

Passionate software developer with several experiences in the dynamic world of banking. I've mastered the art of coding using languages like C#, JavaScript, HTML, SQL, and CSS.

Consider me a full-stack maestro, specializing in the harmonious blend of Blazor, React, Node.js, and .NET MVC.

Working with cross-functional teams and following Agile and Scrum methodologies is my jam. I love the thrill of collaborating with talented minds to create exceptional digital experiences.

Whether it's crafting web wonders or shaping snazzy mobile apps, I bring versatility to the table.

Databases? Check. Cloud computing? Piece of cake. Version control systems? Git it! Project management tools? Nailed it! I've got the tech stack covered like a boss.

In addition to my coding prowess, I've got a knack for leadership. Mentoring and guiding fellow junior developers is my secret superpower. I've even taken the liberty to complete the Academic Work Academy C# accelerated learning program, because, well, who doesn't love a good academic adventure?

My ultimate quest? To ascend to the elite realm of the top 5% of developers. Armed with boundless curiosity and a passion for solving puzzles, I'm on a mission to turn complex challenges into awe-inspiring solutions.

If you're in search of a software virtuoso who can code with flair and conquer coding conundrums, let's connect. Together, we'll create digital magic that will make the tech world go "wow!"
